Agenda item: 6. Executive Committee Candidates

Introduction

I am running for re-election to the CDN Executive Committee to continue strengthening our network and supporting activists in their political struggles. With experience in strategic planning, fundraising, and international activism, I have worked to amplify voices across Eastern Europe and beyond. In these challenging times, we must stand in solidarity to defend democracy, support a sovereign Ukraine in internationally recognised borders, and build a future rooted in justice and security.

Subject: Application for Executive Committee 2025/26

Dear Delegates,

My name is Filip Janković, and I am currently serving as a member of the Executive Committee (EC) of CDN. I am writing to express my candidacy for a second term, as I remain committed to strengthening our network and supporting our member organizations in their political and activist struggles.

During my mandate in the EC, I primarily served as the Balkan responsible, ensuring regular and effective communication between CDN and its member organizations in the region. Through this role, I have worked closely with activists and organizations to amplify their voices and provide necessary support in their efforts. Most recently, I was a part of the preparatory team for CDN's 2024 Study Session: Breaking the Barriers in Budapest, where I contributed to designing the program and ensuring its smooth implementation.

My experience extends to strategic planning, event organization, and fundraising, having worked on securing funding from institutions such as the Westminster Foundation, the European Endowment for Democracy, and Green Forum Sweden. Beyond my engagement in CDN, I have been actively involved in youth activism for over six years through various local, national, and international organizations.

I decided to run for re-election because I firmly believe that now, more than ever, we must stand in solidarity to safeguard our freedoms and future. The collapse of Novi Sad railway station's canopy and subsequent protests that brought Serbia to a standstill serves as a stark reminder of the challenges we face as Eastern Europeans in securing fair democratic processes. Serbia's case highlights broader issues affecting our region—democratic backsliding, systemic violence, threat to basic security, and the continuous erosion of the rule of law. The ruling elite's willingness to jeopardize our security and fundamental rights for their own interests only reinforces the urgency of our fight.

Europe is facing challenging times with the re-election of Donald Trump and the resurgence of American isolationism, which directly benefits the Russian imperial state and its destabilizing ambitions. Trump's exploitation of Ukrainian resources only underscores the urgency of our fight for a free and sovereign Ukraine within its pre-2014 borders. Now more than ever, we must push for strong security guarantees from the West to ensure Ukraine's rightful place as an independent and resilient nation.

To address these challenges, we need an Executive Committee that will not only support our member organizations but also actively work to build international alliances that strengthen our network. With my experience in international activism, strategic planning, and political organising, I am confident in my ability to contribute to the EC's work and to represent the diverse voices within our network.

I ask for your trust and support in re-electing me to the Executive Committee so that together, we can continue to fight for a future worth living.

Green greetings

Filip Janković

Letter of support

On behalf of the Green Youth of Serbia, I'm writing to express my support for Filip Jankovic's candidacy for the position of CDN's Executive Committee member for 2025/26!

Filip's engagement remains one of the cornerstones of the organizational and political development of ZOS. His experience, partly from his previous engagements and partly from his years with us in the Board, helped us stay afloat and develop structures to suit our growing organization. He remains one of our most active members. His work to maintain our international relationships as a ZOS member and his efforts to engage Balkan MOs as a CDN representative were both very helpful.

Filip's past year in CDN served both his growth as a political actor and the MOs he has been in contact with. His motivation and organizational skills have helped your organization cultivate active membership in the Balkans, and we all know firsthand how valuable he is for organizing an event. He would be an invaluable asset for another year and the entirety of ZOS supports his aspirations to rerun.

Belgrade, 09. 02. 2025.

Anđela Marković

International secretary of the Green Youth of Serbia
