Proposers:

Statutes

1 The founder institutes hereby the Statutes for the Association and that in the 2 following manner:

3 Title 1: Basic Act

4 Article 1 – Form -Denomination

5 The form of the Association is an international association with none lucrative 6 objective (with international benefits), in compliance to the laws and is being 7 named as the Cooperation and Development Network of Eastern Europe, in short the 8 CDN.

9 In all acts, bills, announcements, publications and other pages issued by the 10 International Association having none lucrative objective a designation of the 11 Association must be mentioned with above or further added wording “International 12 Association without a lucrative objective” or the abbreviation IALO (AISBL) as 13 well as its’ seat address.

14 Article 2 – Social Seat

15 The social seat of the Association is to be set in the Brussels-Capital Region.

16 The administration body has the power to move the seat of the association within 17 Belgium, provided that such a move does not require a change in the language of 18 the statutes by virtue of the applicable language regulations. In case of 19 transfer of the seat to another Region, the administration body has the power to 20 modify the statutes.

21 Article 3 Objective – Activities

22 As non-profitting Association with none lucrative objective, it has the following 23 strategies of international benefit:

- 24 • Promotion of ecology (in its broad sense: environment, social and 25 political ecology) and the stability with the young Europeans, using all 26 non-violent means at the disposal.
- 27 • Encouragement for realization of ecology studies and reflections in 28 various forms (in its broad sense) with the young democrats of the whole

29 Europe, accentuating Eastern Europe (European countries non-members of 30 European Union).

- 31 • To unite the young people of various European nations, to establish and 32 favour dialogues on regional and national differences
- 33 • To coordinate joint actions of organisations members towards development 34 and cooperation of young people and groups in Europe, aiming to bring 35 together European nations
- 36 • To promote objectives of joint “green” actions at the international level
- 37 • To defend rights of men and women, rights of minorities, equality of 38 genders and the democracy, as well as the means for democratic action
- 39 • To promote long lasting development in Eastern Europe.

40 The objectives quest shall specifically be executed through following 41 activities:

- 42 1. Activities in exchanging
- 43 2. Seminars and reunions for studies
- 44 3. Training programs
- 45 4. Campaign on sensitiveness efforts
- 46 5. Meetings
- 47 6. Study visits
- 48 7. Support to organisations members

49 The Association can execute any act relating directly or indirectly to its 50 objectives. It can namely assist and get involved in all activities following 51 objectives being similar to own ones.

52 Article 4 – Members

53 The Association is open to Belgian and foreign persons.

54 The Association is composed of factual members only, who are legal entities. The 55 members are divided into two categories: EU-members and non-EU members. EU-56 members are organisations whose headquarters are located in the European Union 57 and which have a double right to vote in the General

58 Assembly. Non-EU members are organisations whose headquarters are located 59 outside the European Union and which benefit from a double triple right in the 60 General Assembly.

61 Number of members is not limited, while the minimum is set to be five(5).

62 Article 5

63 Admission of new members is conditioned through following clauses:

- 64 1. 1. To be a member of the CDN, an organisation should send a recommended 65 letter to the Secretariat with enclosed Statutes of their 66 organisation, with all useful information referring namely to their 67 juridical ranking, to number of members, age limit and activity 68 type.
- 69 2. The admission of a new member requires a two-thirds majority vote of 70 the General Assembly in favour of their admission.
- 71 3. The members must respect the Statutes, decisions taken by the 72 General Assembly and the CDN political program.
- 73 4. The members of the CDN have equal right to participate to events 74 organized by the CDN.

75 Members can give their resignation under following conditions:

76 The members are free to withdraw at any time from the Association by presenting 77 their written request to the President. The members having resigned have none 78 right relating to CDN property, nor can they request refunding of any of their 79 contribution fees. Administration Council can propose expulsion of an 80 Association member. The expulsion Decision can be pronounced by the General 81 Assembly, after having heard the defence of the person concerned, by a two-82 thirds majority of the votes cast, not counting abstentions in the numerator or 83 denominator.

84 The Administration Council can reschedule the case of the member contender until 85 the Decision of the General Assembly. Member can be deferred for duration of a 86 year according to proposition of the Administration Council or upon proposition 87 of the majority of the General

88 Assembly, in case when member in question has not settled payment of annual fee 89 contribution.

90 A member can be expelled if he does not respect the CDN Statutes.

91 A member who stops participating in Association's activities (due to death or 92 otherwise), does not have any right to social funds.

93 Article 5bis

94 Members pay fixed contribution, being fixed annually by General Assembly upon 95 proposition of the Administration Council and pursuant to financial means of the 96 members.

97 Members must pay their contribution fee for the current year by the month of 98 September. In case of payment failure, rights of member in question will be 99 temporary suspended by the General Assembly, until payment of the contribution 100 fee is settled.

101 Title 2: organisation

102 Chapter 1 – Managing (Administration Governing – 103 Representation)

104 Article 6 – General Assembly (General Managing Body)

105 The General Assembly has full power enabling realization of objectives and 106 activities of the Association.

107 All members are its constituents.

108 Particularly, the following processes are essential for its functioning:

- 109 1. Approval of budget and accounts
- 110 2. Election, revocation, discharge of administrators and if required, 111 exclusion of accounts' supervisors or examiners
- 112 3. Statutes modifications
- 113 4. Approval of acts for interior order
- 114 5. Closing down of the Association
- 115 6. Exclusion of members
- 116 7. Approval of Annual Report of Administration Council

117 Article 7

- 118 1. General Assembly gathers every year, when suited at the social seat or at 119 other place as set in convocation, under presidency of the President of 120 Administration Council, or in case of his absence or prevention, under the 121 Secretary's presidency. Convocations for General Assembly are sent in 122 written form by the Secretariat in the sufficient time limit before the 123 General Assembly so that the participants can contribute to the Agenda 124 (submit propositions, functional points etc.), in order that accompanying 125 documents are at the disposal (via web site) to participants in such time 126 limit allowing its reading prior the meeting. Convocations are sent by 127 post, fax, electronic mail or other communication means at least 15 128 (fifteen) days before the General Assembly, with included Agenda.
- 129 2. Extraordinary General Assembly could be summoned upon request of the 130 Administration Council or by request of third of factual members under 131 hereinafter set conditions:
 - 132 ◦ Invitation to extraordinary General Assembly must be sent to all 133 members at least one month before General Assembly with enclosed 134 General Assembly Agenda.
- 135 3. The CDN will cover all costs relating to the General Assembly (voyage, 136 accommodation, meals and visas) for designated person of an organisation 137 member). If an organisation submits request to adhere, the CDN will cover 138 the same costs for one representative of such organisation requesting the 139 partnership, when financial conditions would allow it and if the report of 140 the Executive Committee is positive one. The CDN will preserve right to 141 cover costs of voyage within limits being specified in the convocation for 142 the General Assembly and in compliance to Decision of the Administration 143 Council. CDN is not obliged to cover costs of another designated person of 144 the organisation member or to cover costs of one designated person of an 145 EU-member organisation. CDN should try to ensure funds to provide for 146 costs of one designated person of the EU-member organisation and of 147 another designated person of the non-EU member organisation .

148 4. In case of lack of financial means to comply to articles 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3
149 of General Assembly organisation, the CDN Administration Council would be 150 then obliged to inform by written all organisations members about causes 151 of such situation and to request suggestions and propositions or a 152 postponement for a year.

153 5. The non-EU organisation members of the CDN have a triple voting right at 154 the General Assembly. As such, they have right to designate two members 155 with voting prerogatives during the General Assembly. An EU-member 156 organisation has the right to send a delegate with a double right to vote 157 to the general assembly.

158 6. The genders' equality should be assured.

159 Article 8

160 1. Excluding the stipulations that are contrary to the present Statutes, the 161 deliberation of the General Assembly will be valid only when half of 162 members or their representatives are present.

163 2. Each member can be represented at the General Assembly by one or two 164 delegates or else by another member or by a third party, with assured 165 special authorization.

166 Article 9

167 Excepting cases previewed by these Statutes, simple majority presented or 168 represented members is sufficient to bring resolutions. All members are informed 169 by electronic mail about the brought resolutions.

170 Article 10 – Administration Council (Administration Body)

171 • S1-2 Green Youth of Serbia

172 1. The Association is governed by a Council, referred to as the "Executive 173 Committee", composed of at least three Administrators. None maximum has 174 been foreseen. Administrators must come from at least three different 175 countries. However, no more than two Administrators can come from the same 176 country. The General Assembly has right to decide on exceptional cases.
177 Beside this, three quarts of Administrators must come from organisations

- 178 members, while at least 50% of Administrators must be of women* and at 179 least three quarters of Administrators must be younger than thirty.
- 180 2. The Council has at their disposal all governing and administrative 181 authorities as to contribute to the General Assembly.
- 182 3. The Council chooses from own members a President, a Secretary and a 183 Treasurer (and eventually a Vice-Presidents etc).
- 184 4. The Administration Council can, out of two-thirds majority, assign one or 185 several persons, members or not of the Administration Council, for daily 186 managing and representation of the Association in matters of the daily 187 managing.
- 188 • The person(s) responsible for day-to-day management shall act separately.
 - 189 • Such an arrangement is set as to face third persons in the conditions 190 previewed by the law.
- 191 5. The day-to-day management of the association includes both acts and 192 decisions which do not exceed the needs of the daily life of the 193 association and acts and decisions which, either because of the minor 194 interest they represent or because of their urgent nature, do not justify 195 the intervention of the administrative body. Any restriction relating to 196 the representation authorities, being accorded to the person in charge of 197 daily managing; for the daily managing functioning; can not be questioned
198 by third parties, even if published. The person in charge of daily 199 managing will have a title of "Secretary General".
- 200 6. The Administration Council can establish a whole consultative center or 201 any equivalent if evaluated as useful, whose role would be to counsel or 202 advise the Administration Council on issues of particular cases.
- 203 7. Identity of one or more delegates for daily managing shall be forwarded to 204 the Tribunal de l'entreprise Registry and should be published in the 205 Belgian official journal's annexes.
- 206 8. Beside this, the Council can, within its responsibilities, entrust special 207 and particular authorities to one or several persons.
- 208 9. The responsibilities of members of Administration Council shall be 209 specified by the regulations and internal procedures of the CDN. Members 210 of the Administration Council have no right to vote during the General 211 Assembly, except when they are in fact the only member of their 212 organisation who is member of the CDN, being present at the General
213 Assembly.

214 Article 11- Nominations

- 215 The Administrators are named by the General Assembly for a mandate that ends 216 during the next ordinary General Assembly, with a possibility of double renewal.

217 In case of vacation during their mandates, the Administration Council can assign 218 a replacement person who will act until mandate termination of the person he is 219 replacing. The Administrators can be revoked by the General Assembly in session 220 with two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

221 Article 12 - Meetings

222 The Council gathers twice a year or upon special convocation of two-thirds of 223 factual members.

224 The convocation is transmitted by post, fax, electronic mail and all other 225 communication ways.

226 One Administrator can be represented by another Administrator.

227 The Council can deliberate constructively only when at least two-thirds of its 228 factual or represented members are present. Its resolutions are brought with 229 simple majority of present or represented members. In case of voice divergences, 230 the vote of the President will be decisive.

231 Article 13 – Conflict of interests

232 If Administrator has directly or indirectly an opposing interest of patrimonial 233 nature towards a decision or an operation relating to the Administration 234 Council, he has to pass it to other Administrators before deliberation at the 235 Administration Council. His statement, as well as reasons justifying the 236 contrary interest of the head of the Administrator in question, should be stated 237 in the Minutes of the Administration Council who is to bring Decision. Beside 238 this, he should inform eventual supervisors about it. The Administration Council 239 describes in Minutes the disposition of Decision or operation with a 240 justification for the taken Decision as well as the patrimonial consequences for 241 the Association. The Managing Report should contain the complete Minutes. The 242 Administrator in question cannot deliberate on session of the Administration 243 Council relating to operation or Decision in question, nor can he take part in 244 the voting. This article will not apply when decisions of the Administration 245 Council relate to usual operations taken in normal conditions for the operations 246 of the same nature.

247 Article 14 – Representation

248 With exception of special authorization, any act inducing the Association, 249 signed by a delegated Administrator or by Secretary General acting alone, or by 250 a member of the Administration Council having particular authorization, does not 251 have to be justified to third parties, not even if demanded through announce.

252 The juridical actions in demanding or defending cases are to be followed by 253 Administration Council being represented by a designated Administrator or the 254 Secretary General acting alone or by a member of the Administration Council 255 having special authorization.

256 Chapter 2: Book Keeping

257 Article 15 - Financial Year and Balance Sheets

258 The financial year terminates on the 31 st December.

259 The Administration Council is expected to submit Balance Sheets for the past 260 financial year and following Financial Year Budget for approval of the General 261 Assembly to convene during the next assembly.

262 Article 16 - Control

263 In the case previewed by the Law, the Administration Council will confer 264 financial control of the Association to one or several supervisors according to 265 own choice.

266 Title 3 : Modifications and Dissolution

267 Article 17

268 Without legal imposing, every proposition having for objective a modification of 269 statutes or dissolution of the Association should originate from Administration 270 Council or from at least (2/3) two-thirds of factual Association members.

271 The Administration Council is to inform members of the Association at least two 272 moths in advance prior to date of General Assembly which is to deliberate about 273 given proposition. Proposals for amendments to the statutes shall be 274 communicated in detail to the members at least fifteen days before the General
275 Assembly.

276 The General Assembly can properly perform only if two-thirds of members are 277 gathered, having deliberative, present or represented voting rights.

278 No decision shall be taken unless it is passed by a four-fifths majority of the 279 votes cast, not counting abstentions in the numerator or denominator.

280 Nonetheless, if that General Assembly does not gather two-thirds of the 281 Association members, a new General Assembly will be convoked in the same 282 conditions as above designated, which will then definitely and valuably decide 283 on the issue, with the same majority of four-fifths of votes, notwithstanding 284 number of present or represented members.

285 The decisions relating to vital issues such as social objective, attributions, 286 convocation ways, decision making of the general administration bodies, as well 287 as manner in which members are informed about the resolutions, conditions for 288 statutes modification, for dissolution, termination and assignment of 289 Association' social patrimony shall all be established by an authentic act.

290 Thus, in compliance with the Law, resolution on modification of Association
291 objective (objectives) would have effect only following approval of the King 292 that would equally be published in the Belgian official journal. Other Decisions

293 on modifications of statutory mentions do not have to be submitted for 294 acceptance to the Belgian minister having competence or to his delegate.

295 Article 18 - Liquidation and pretension to assets

296 In case of juridical or voluntary dissolution, the General Assembly will assign 297 one or more liquidators and will set liquidation of the Association.

298 After the liquidation, eventual net assets would be conferred to one juridical 299 person without a lucrative objective or private claims, being international or 300 not, in compliance to realization of an objective similar to the one of the 301 Association or at least not having a detrimental goal.

302 General stipulations

303 Article 19 - Choice of quarters

304 For the realization of these Statutes, all factual members or supporters, 305 administrator and liquidator, residing abroad, shall choose for residence the 306 social seat of the Association, where any communication for them can be properly 307 submitted.

308 Article 20 – Common Law

309 For everything not being covered by these Statues, it is through the Law that 310 the competence is to be sought, while the clauses being contrary to essential 311 stipulations are considered not written.

312 Article 21 Judicial Competence

313 For any dispute between Association, its members, partners, obliging persons, 314 Administrators, supervisors and liquidators relating to the Association's 315 affairs and to execution of present Statutes, exclusive competence is entrusted 316 to courts at region of the social seat, except if the Association has explicitly 317 renounced to that.
